

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1.1 Conclusion

From the analysis and the discussion in this research, the researcher has answered statement of the problems, the first statement is about kinds of characters does Joe Keller have. Joe Keller is the main character in the drama because he is someone who appears first in the story it can be seen the character who appear more frequently than the other character from the beginning to the end of drama is the main character, that the way why Joe Keller includes as the main character. Joe keller is round character Joe Keller has a complex personality it can be seen Joe keller is wicked he sold defective parts which cause the planes collision and kill 21 men include larry his son, beside he also love his family and he did want to did anything to his family. Joe Keller is antagonist who has a bad characteristic it can be seen Joe is liar he promise to Steve to take a responsibility but Joe escape from reality, Joe ask steve to weld and cover up the cracks in any way.

The second, based on the analysis in the previous chapter, it can be conclude that there are several moral values related with the main character. First moral value concern with ambition, second moral value concern with crime, and moral value concern with loving. Moral value concern with ambition it can be seen from Joe has strong ambition to get a wealth. Moral value concern with crime it can be seen from Joe sold defective parts which cause the planes collision and kill 21 men include larry his son. Moral value concern with loving it can be seen seen Joe is really love his family, he want to did anything to make them happy. The researcher also found moral values derived from the characterization. First, happiness is not depend on money. Second, as long as you keep your secret is revealed and third, be honest.

5.2 Suggestion

After analyzing this drama which is using moral values theory, the researcher hopes this analysis can function and encourage the acknowledge of people to do some analysis or for other data resources, especially for student of English department to study more about literary works. After analyze this drama which is using moral values theory, the researcher take conclusion if All My Son also available to analyze with another theory approach. The researcher suggests the next researcher to analyze this drama because there are a lot of unique characters that has many different characterizations that build the story in this drama.
