

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter will present the conclusion and suggestion. The conclusion is headmaster, the teacher, the students and the government.

5.1 Conclusion

It is described that the students' have more knowledge about what narrative texts among others are generic structure and many types of narrative texts. They seem like with a story narrative and team reading something. Therefore they can reading a narrative text better than before.

The teachers seem have more knowledge in teaching reading because by reading this final project, they will know the steps in reading and how to give score of the students' reading. Therefore teacher can use this method to increase the students' achievement in reading comprehension.

It is expected that this research will be useful for someone who will have a research or final project about teaching reading because in this research there are many steps in conducting research that can be used as references.

By conducting this research, I have more knowledge in the field. I knew how to apply the reading lesson by using many types of texts better than before and I also have experience how to master the class based on the situation I faced in the class.

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the research, some suggestions are given to following person:

5.2.1 For The English Teacher

The teacher and the students must work together in teaching and learning process, especially in reading comprehension, they should help each other to make the teaching reading process successful

5.2.2 For The Student

The students' should learn more about narrative texts in order they can get more knowledge. It will be better for them to use the steps in writing when they write something in order they can make a good reading. If they have many difficulties, they can ask the teacher.

It will be better for the teachers to use the rule in writing, in this case is the steps in writing when they teach narrative in order they can increase the students' achievement in reading comprehension. The teacher also should help their students' when their students have difficulties in reading.
