

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background of the Study

Language is a tool of communication to the question of whether the language is that? It naturally happened because the language is a social phenomenon that many terms of its function appears to be the most prominent features among aspects other issue concerning the definition of language when a narrative is called a language, which is different from other language, and only when considered as a variant of a language. (Bolinger, 1975:15)

Javanese people usually use proper name in their name, the purpose they want the use it because they have purpose and meaning their live can be successful and have good love same with their name.

Beside that in English some words or sentences has meaning for example about proper name used by Javanese people, in their name it has some meaning. Sometimes if we heard about it maybe we know or unknown what the meaning about their proper name, we seemed to be confused to catch it because it seemed very strange to us.

There are some of Javanese proper name

- Urip Utomo
- Candra Dewi
- Indah Dewi Pratiwi
- Subagya

The meaning of that the name of Javanese peoples that is a proper name.

Each of the Javanese proper name above has intended meaning based on the speech act theory, lets us take those to be analysis, Urip Utomo means The Priority of Live, Candra Dewi means the Fairy of Moon, Indah Dewi Pratiwi means The Beautiful Fairy of Earth, Subagio means a Live Happy.

The outsider switch difficulty in catching and understanding about the sense of these words, because many people unknown and understanding about the meaning and now many people seldom use Javanese language in their name because of they have think that is ancient. (Chafe, Wallace, L. 1973)

1.2 Statement of the Problem.

Beside of the background of the study the problem is formulated as follows

1. What are the possible illocutionary act of Javanese proper name?
2. Why do the Javanese people use of proper name?

1.3 The Purpose of the Study

In accordance with problem of the study the objectives are formulated as follows:

1. To identity the illocutionary act in proper name used by Javanese people
2. To reveal the reason why the use illocutionary act in their proper name in their proper name Javanese people.

1.4 Significance of the Study

The writer expects it will give a meaning full contribution to the sociolinguistic study and the view of the students of English department, in particular, and for the sociolinguistic deservers in general.

1.5 The Scope and Limitation of the Study

The scope of the study is pragmatics, this research just analyzes using theof illocutionary act.

1.6 Definition of Key Term

Some items of terminology are defined to avoid misinterpretation. The illocutionary act is carried out by a speaker making an utterance is the act viewed in terms of e utterances significance within a conventional system of social interaction (Prof. Dr. D. Wagiman Adi Sutrisno, M.A.)

- The meanings of words phrases and sentences as can safety be taken as know to competent speakers of language, native, speakers of language are the primary sources of in formation about meaning
- Semantics is an attempt to set up a theory to meaning Hufford and Heasley (1984:8) define a theory in the following way : “A theory is a precisely specified, coherent, and economical frame work of interdependent statements and definitions constructed do that as large a member as possible of particular basic facts can either be see to follow from it or be describe in terms or it.