

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

From the analysis data in the previous chapter, could be like to conclude the discussion of this research from the data analyzed:

5.1 The Type of Figure of Speech

According to the data analysis and discussion in the chapter 4, the writer would like to conclude this research as follows. There are some types of figure of speech found in Robert Frost's poems, they are : antithesis, irony, metaphor, paradox, simile, symbol, personification, anaphora, assonance, litotes and hyperbole.

There is poet that had biggest number of figure of speech employed, this is "The Death of The Hired Man". The figure of speech found in "The Death of The Hired Man" are : paradox, litotes, symbol, hyperbole, simile and irony.

5.2 The Theme of Death

The theme of this thesis is about death. "Fire and Ice", "In a Disused Graveyard", "The Death of The Hired Man" are tells that the come of death is unpredictable, and everyone have different situation for face it. The theme of death remains us all that every life on earth will be death. We cannot be immortal and escape from the death because death is must for a living creature. Many theories support about death for living creature, and one of theory which supports the existence of death is Rinpoche's theory. Rinpoche's theory support this data for explain about death. Nature on this earth has always had processes for keep balancing. As the same like human life for keep balancing, there is a born and death.
