

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS

Based on the analysis in Chapter IV above, Researcher comes to the following conclusions :

5.1 Conclusions

Based on the research of Stylistic Analysis of Westlife Song “Soledad” and “I Have a Dream” can summed as follow:

5.1.1 The Figure of Speech used in “Soledad” and “I Have a Dream”

In Soledad Lyric was founded there are five type of figures of speech, they are repetition, rhetoric, metaphor, personification, and hyperbole. In I Have a Dream lyric was founded three type of figures of speech, they are hyperbole, personification, and repetition.

5.1.2 Contribution messages conveyed in “Soledad” and “I Have a Dream”

The contribute message contain in Soledad song that researcher found; Love the world and we will lost it, do not be love it more. Past was passed away so focus to the future is the important. In I have a dream lyric contribution message is motivation to reach a success that so important thing in this life.