

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

This chapter is the conclusion of the problems of the research. It discusses about conclusion and suggestion of the research. Conclusion is a summary of the problem that analyzed by the researcher. Whereas, suggestion is some sentences that gives to the reader, so the reader will be easy to write the final project.

5.1 Conclusion

After analyzing the problem of the research, the researcher can conclude that, The Boor is a comedy by Anton Chekhov. It is a farce comedy and manner comedy. This drama it very belly laugh of the audiences. Farce comedy is also use the language that rude, vulgar, and flexible. Comedy is usually happy-ending.

Farce comedy in this drama about speech of Smirnov to Popov, it is rude and vulgar to intimate the audience that, this drama is not a drama that makes the audience tension. But it is to relax the audience about cruel of life.

Manner comedy is type of comedy that describe about upper-class society. Popov involved in category upper class, as an aristocrat classify. And the manner comedy is the young Popov still use the powder, although he was in mourning. Because an aristocrat must be seem beautiful and honorable.

The incongruity in Anton Chekhov's The Boor, it is changed of feeling the woman that the early did not want to meet anyone, she was not going anywhere, and she was also keep her status as a widow. It is a form of faithful to her husband who very loved. Because her husband was die. Although she keeps her status, but there is a man was open her heart, so she opens her heart to the man, and they loved each other. The man was changed of woman's life. The problem that is resolved with love.

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the analyzing the problem of the research, the researcher can give suggestion to the reader. After reading and understanding this final project, the reader can takes advantages and knowledge of it. The researcher, write this final project about literature.

Literature is difficult to be analyzed, drama in special. So, before analyzing it, the reader must be understood the contents of it. In drama, there are some aspects to be analyzed. And the aspects must be understood by the reader.

If the reader wants to write the final project about literature, they should look for the relevant final project that used. Then, they have to search other references that enclosed about it. Thus, it will be easy to write the final project.