

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter, the researcher explains about the conclusion of the research that has did by the researcher about what are the theme that was found by the researcher through analyze the plot, setting, and characters in The Proposal by Anthon Chekhov. Here, the researcher also gives her suggestions for everyone who wants to analyze theme in a drama to help them discover theme easier.

5. 1 Conclusion

Based on the plot of this story that tell about a man that wants to propose a woman but they debate and fight about a land and hunter dog because they do not want to be regarded lower than other and they want to keep their dignity as someone from good social class and economic till they fight hardly and abuse each other. And finally he gets his couple.

It can be seen that the plot reveal theme a man who is looking for a wife who has higher or similar social status and economic stability

While, from the setting which show this drama take place in Chubukov`s house. House is a symbol of wealth and that show Lomov`s seriousness to propose Natalya. What do Lomov and Natalya wears shows who are them. Evening dress that is wore by Lomov show that he is a rich man that wants to propose a woman. Natalya wears apron. It shows that she is a woman that is ready to marry and a rich girl because she does not work. All of this setting in this drama refers to same theme, a man who is looking for a wife and social status and economic stability between two families.

And the last element that the researcher analyzed is the characters. The characters are created by Anton Chekhov in The Proposal show that Chubukov as a land owner, 70 years old, he is a person that regard wealth and social status is very important, a father that is spoiling Natalya and he cannot be a good mediator as a oldest character here. Natalya is his daughter, 25 years old, she is emotional easy to offended, spoiled, not grown up yet and she is ready to marry. Lomov is a land owner, 35 years old, hearty, and he is looking for a real love.

The characters that are created by the author reveal the theme a man who is looking for a wife who has higher or similar social status and economic stability with him..

After analyzing the plot, setting and characters in Anton Chekhov`s The Proposal for discovering the theme. From the elements of drama that were analyzed by the researcher before. The result of the researcher`s analysis shows that all of the elements of drama that were analyzed by the researcher refers to the same theme. a man who is looking for a wife who has higher or similar social status and economic stability with him for starting family. But, they debate hardly for keeping their dignity.

5. 2 Suggestion

Theme is not always present directly by the author but sometimes indirectly. So for the reader that wants to discover the theme in a story the researcher suggest for analyzing the other elements in the drama or narrative work or extract it from the characters, action, and setting that make up the story. In other words, the theme must be figured out by the reader it can help the reader for discovering the theme because theme is central idea and detail of language, character, and action in a story.. So understanding the plot, conflict, and structure are going to help you understand the meaning in a story and knowing what happen in the story, secondly is analysis the character. Who is the main character? What he or she says, does, and how the author describe the character from their actions and responds. Thirdly analyzing the setting in the drama where the drama take place?, when the time of the drama happen?, setting is not only about time and place but period of the drama, what the character uses, and details of setting are including setting too.
