

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

5.1 Conclusion

Alhamdulillahhirabbil'alamin... finally, the researcher finishes this research. In this chapter the researcher would like to conclude the result of the research. The researcher presents result of the figure of speech, possible meaning, and contribution of figure of speech on four of John Denver's songs.

5.1.1 In this sub chapter the researcher found several types of figure of speech which contain in the songs. The first song is "Back Home Again". The types of figure of speech that researcher found in the song are: Personification, Synecdoche, Simile, Hyperbole, Metaphor, Repetition, Understatement, Assonance. Second song is "Rocky Mountain High". The types of figure of speech that researcher found in the song are: Personification, Anaphora, Hyperbole, Understatement, Repetition, Assonance, Alliteration, Metaphor. Third song is "Sunshine on My Shoulders". The types of figure of speech that researcher found in the song are: Anaphora, Assonance, Hyperbole, Simile, Alliteration, Epiphora. Fourth song is "Take Me Home, Country Roads". The types of figure of speech that researcher found in the song are: Hyperbole, Metaphor, Simile, Assonance, Personification, Alliteration, Repetition.

5.1.2 In this sub chapter the researcher describes possible meaning of the songs. The first song is "Back Home Again". The possible meaning of the song is: The author's feeling to be back home. It is because the weather is cloudy and seems to be raining. Maybe it happened when he wants to go somewhere and suddenly the weather is cloudy and rainy. He feels cold and tired because he has to wait until it is clear. He looks at along the street which is quiet from the vehicle pass. So, it makes him feel to back home and gather with his family. Second song is “Rocky Mountain High”. The possible meaning of the song is: The place named Rocky Mountain which is located in Colorado, USA. The Rocky means the stone which placed on the peak of the mountain. The author loves that place very much because of its beautiful scenery. He imagines that he were a Rocky which can see everything below from that place. He can also see raining fire or meteor, feels calm from the shadow of starlight, and having a cool breeze. Unfortunately, the place is so quiet because the people seldom visit the place. Third song is “Sunshine on My Shoulders”. The possible meaning of the song is: About the beautiful sunshine. The author writes this song on an early spring day in Minnesota when the rain was gently falling. It was a dreary day, gray and slushy. The snow was melting and it was too cold to go outside and have fun, but it’s ready for spring. He finds himself looking forward to spend more time outdoors and enjoying the sunshine. He loves having sunshine very much. Fourth song is “Take Me Home, Country Roads”. The possible meaning of the song is: About beauty of West Virginia countryside. The author really loves the place because of its beautifulness like a heaven. He imagines that he were in that place. He also describes about the place such as: beautiful, green, quiet, and breeze. He really wants to go back to the place.

5.1.3 In this sub chapter the researcher describe the reason figure of speech is used in the songs. The first song is “Back Home Again”. The reason why figures of speech are used in the song is: They give an exaggeration, explicit, refinement, comparison, and poetic effect to the song. So, it makes the song more beautiful, vivid, and romantic but full of meaning. Second song is “Rocky Mountain High”. The reason why figures of speech are used in the song is: They give a comparison, explicit, strengthening, tragic, and refinement effect. So, it makes the song more energetic, vivid, and artistic but meaningful story. Third song is “Sunshine on My Shoulders”. The reason why figures of speech are used in the song is: They give a strengthening, explicit, refinement, and exaggeration effect. So, it makes the song more romantic, vivid, dramatic, and beautiful, with love and meaningful story. Fourth song is “Take Me Home, Country Roads”. The reason why figures of speech are used in the song is: They give a strengthening, emotive, energetic, exaggeration effect. So, it makes the song more vivid, artistic, dramatic, beautiful and full of meaning.