

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 CONCLUSION

This chapter consist the conclusion from the result of analysis in the previous chapter. This part shows the conclusion of the answers to the questions of the study; the Failure Mechanism symptoms of Percy Wetmore and the reason why Percy Wetmore is failed on copings his symptoms of Failure Mechanism.

Based on the statement of the problem, it is stated that Percy Wetmore gets the symptoms of Failure Mechanism such as Frustration, Aggressiveness, Uncertainty, and Resentment while he is pursuing his dreams on The Green Mile. Percy Wetmore does not experience the other Failure Mechanism symptoms like Loneliness, Insecurity and Emptiness.

The second statement of the problems, it can be conclude that Percy Wetmore is failed on copings his symptoms of Failure Mechanism, such as Frustration, Aggressiveness, Uncertainty and Resentment. He is failed to cope those symptoms because of some factors. First, he fails on copings his Frustration because he cannot control his emotion. Second, he is failed to cope his Aggressiveness since he is still young. Therefore, he uses his Id so that he cannot control his emotion. Third, he is failed to cope his Uncertainty because he is doubt to hit Wild Bill when the other guards ask him, but he does nothing so that is why he is failed on copings his Uncertainty. On the other hand, he also doubt on moving to Briar Ridge or not. The last, he is failed on copings his Resentment because he cannot threaten Paul and the other guards by using his status as a governor's nephew.

5.2 SUGGESTION

The researcher hopes that this suggestion can help the other researchers. The next researcher shall analyze the Failure Mechanism more deeply. The researcher uses novel in this research but the next researchers can use the other literary work such as short story, drama, or even film script as the data. The researcher also hopes that the next researchers can find the other theory like Power relation, defense mechanism or racialism by using the Green Mile. Furthermore, the researcher hopes the other researcher can use Failure Mechanism as the theory to analyze the other literary work
