

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

Based on data analysis stated previously the writer can take conclusion of the illocutionary and perlocutionary acts from Bung Tomo's speech.

1.1 The Illocutionary

Based on the theory the writer can conclude the illocutionary part by used Hurford and Heasley equip Searle's speech act classification in detail in to a number of illocutionary acts such as accepting, assuring, challenging, promising, and refusing ( Hurford and Heasley, 1983;244)

1.2 the perlocutionary

base on the theory the writer can conclude the perlocutionary. The perlocutionary acts of Bung Tomo's statement are regarding to the effect of what he says and the intention that he delivers to the hearer that Indonesia and United States can be good nations in relationship of partner for development, democracy, and religion that nation.