1. Steps on finding the frequency during Trump's Presidency

The screenshot displays the NOW Corpus (News on the Web) interface. The browser address bar shows the URL <https://corpus.byu.edu/nw/>. The interface has a blue header with the title "NOW Corpus (News on the Web)" and navigation tabs: SEARCH, FREQUENCY, CONTEXT, and HELP. The SEARCH tab is active.

Under the SEARCH tab, there are several options: List, Chart, Collocates, and Compare KWIC. The "Collocates" option is selected. Below this, there is a search bar with the text "[immigrant]" and a "Word/phrase [POS]" label. To the right of the search bar, there is a "Collocates" button and a "adj:ALL" button. Below the search bar, there is a "Find collocates" button and a "Reset" button. The "Find collocates" button is highlighted with a red box and the number 8.

Below the search bar, there is a "Start" field with the date "01/20/2009" and an "End" field with the date "01/20/2017". The "Start" field is highlighted with a red box and the number 6.

Below the date fields, there is a "Sections" tab with sub-tabs: Texts/Virtual, Sort/Limit, and Options. The "Sections" tab is selected. Below the "Sections" tab, there are two lists of sections. The first list, labeled "1", includes: United States, Canada, Great Britain, Ireland, Australia, New Zealand, and India. The second list, labeled "2", includes: 2018-A, 2017-B, 2017-A, 2016-B, 2016-A, and 2015-B. The "2018-A" section is highlighted with a red box and the number 2.

On the right side of the interface, there is a "SECTIONS" section. It contains a "SHOW" checkbox and a description: "Determines whether the frequency is shown for each 'section' of the corpus (in the case of NOW, the date). For example, the synonyms of beautiful in each section and overall." Below this, there is a table with two columns: "Time period" and "Country". The table contains the following data:

Time period	Country
*gate, 2015-2016	*ism, GB
data NOUN, 2015-2016	hard NOUN, US
Obama + ADJ, 2015-2016	=expensive, GB/IE

Below the table, there is a note: "(Optional) Select a second (set of) section(s) against which to compare the sections chosen above". Below this, there is another table with two columns: "Time period" and "Country". The table contains the following data:

Time period	Country
*gate, 2015-2016 vs 2010-2011	*ism, GB vs IN data NOUN, 2015-2016 vs 2010-2011	hard NOUN, US vs AU
Obama + ADJ, 2015-2016 vs 2010-2011	=expensive, GB/IE vs US/CA
