Text of Prabowo Subianto's speech in Boyolali

Peace be with all of us. Let us incessantly give thanks the presence of Allah SWT God Almighty, we are still given health, given breath, to meet face to face on this good afternoon in front of the post of winning a prosperous fair coalition in the upcoming 2019 general election. Where I Prabowo Subianto and brother Sandiaga Uno received the honor and trust of the people of Indonesia represented by four major political parties.

Partai Amanat Nasional, the historic party that once led reforms in our country and nation in 1998. Partai Keadilan Sejahtera, a party that has always been loyal to defend the interests, truth, prosperity, justice and interests of Muslims in Indonesia. Partai Demokrat which gave birth to a President of the Republic of Indonesia, who had led the Indonesian people for 10 years with calm, calm, cool, with stability and of course the Great Indonesia Movement Party, my own party.

But I felt that not only the four parties supported me and supported me. I was visited everywhere by various groups of mass organizations, wings as an example of the Great Indonesian Warrior Retired. Old lions that come down from the mountains to defend our country and nation even though they may have toothless teeth. His teeth were toothless his spirit was still burning, but mainly what I felt was the support of militant mothers. These mothers are militants. They are brave.

Brethren, we call ourselves a prosperous fair coalition. Why, because justice and prosperity are the ideals of the founders of the Indonesian republic. Justice and prosperity is our goal of independence. Justice and prosperity is our goal in establishing the Republic of Indonesia, brothers and sisters. And now you feel that you feel, now I ask you whether you feel fair, feel prosperous.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I am accompanied today, accompanied by the Chairperson of the National Mandate Party, Mr. Zulkifli Hasan. But he also happened to be the Chairperson of the People's Consultative Assembly of the Republic of Indonesia, the chair of the Indonesian People's Consultative Assembly, the highest representative of the people in the Republic of Indonesia. I was also accompanied by a Central Javanese figure and a TNI figure who was a former Central Java Governor Lieutenant General of the TNI Retired H Bibit Waluyo. The brothers in Central Java who know more about a Waluyo Seed. A governor who works hard for the people, for farmers, for fishermen, for the underprivileged throughout Central Java.

With the slogan behind deso wake up deso. Behind deso, building deso means building the nation and state. Ladies and Gentlemen, I have known Mr. Bibit Waluyo for a long time. Actually, he is my senior, he used to be my mlonco, who galvanized me including him. Because I was once a naughty cadet. But if I'm not naughty, I'm not a general. And I know him in our area of operation. Soldiers were not soldiers behind the desk. We are not soldiers in the city, we are soldiers in the field. We go up and down mountains, we defend this country, risk our lives to maintain the security of this country. From the time we were young we risked our lives for the Indonesian people for the red and white we love.

Now we should retire, we should rest, but we see that our country and nation are still in a bad condition, our economy is not in the hands of our own nation. I was born in Jakarta. I grew up in Jakarta. I gave my age for this nation, I gave my soul and my body to this nation. But as soon as I toured Jakarta I saw luxurious buildings, tall buildings, luxury hotels, let's say which hotels in the world were the most expensive in Jakarta. There's a Ritz-Carlton, what's that, Waldoft Astoria. You can't just name it. And all of that, but I'm sure you never entered the hotels. You may be expelled if you enter, you look not rich, you look, look Boyolali, here, right.

I as a soldier, I see how my country does not belong to my people. For what I am fighting, am I fighting so that our country can become the property of strangers, I am not willing, I am not willing. And that's why I see my people are still many who do not get justice, and can not prosper, and can not prosper. Not that the ideals of Bung Karno, not the ideals of Bung Hatta, not the ideals of Pak Dirman, not that of Ahmad Yani, were not the ideals of our fighters. Because of that the brothers Mr. Bibit, I, long time no see I didn't ask him to support me, he said that he supported Prabowo and Sandi. Brothers such as Pak Zul, PAN figures, PKS, Democrats, volunteers from everywhere joined Prabowo-Sandi whether they hoped for money, no.

We parties that are not in power if we support do not think, we can divide money, share food, share what, no. What we can promise to the people of Indonesia is determination, determination, we are to defend the Indonesian people, in truth. What we can promise to the people of Indonesia is that we will maintain and will manage the wealth of the Indonesian people, for the greatest prosperity of the people of Indonesia. Ladies and gentlemen, not Prabowo, but all the institutions in the world that Indonesia is experiencing a huge imbalance, which controls only one percent of Indonesia's wealth. Less than one percent. There are four Indonesians who have a wealth of more than one hundred million other Indonesians. Is this the ideal of Indonesia? " Prabowo said closing the speech.
